Meet Sami Shafer

Recently, a happy client exclaimed, "DogSpot is like Disneyland for dogs!" Helping to make every day a great ride is Sami Shafer.

Sami relocated here from North Dakota, where she was a team leader for Carlene's previous enterprise.

Sami relates, "I was able to learn, develop and expand my skills in addressing canines' care, comfort and needs. Now I can continue to grow in the field I love while serving our local community. And I can do it in the SoCal sun instead of the snow!"

For more on Sami and our other highly skilled, dog-loving staff, click here: www.dogspot.biz/meet-our-team/

Just4Pits

We're going to the dogs on Sunday mornings with an 8am-Noon Open Playtime exclusively for pit bulls and mixes. All pits must pass a temperament test, be current on vaccinations and accompanied by their owners. The cost is just $5/hour. The play experience with other friendly pit bulls is priceless. Call us at 760.637.3647 for details.

Ask Joey

Dear Joey: My rescued Rottweiler is afraid of new places and people, especially men. How can I help her overcome her fears?

She's Shy

Dear She's Shy:

Take her on leashed walks and places where she will encounter people and pets. Don't overwhelm her or force her to interact. Have men individually stop by your home, where she feels safe. Do not let them approach her. Instead, give them a dog treat to hold out and let her approach them.

DogSpot offers various training packages, some with daycare, for both individuals and groups. Find the one that's right for you here. <http://dogspot.biz/services/training/>

Send your questions to info@dogspot.biz. Put “Ask Joey” in the subject line.

Happy Spots

Elaine and Guy say, “Rosie’s happiest place at home is on the couch checking out her hairdo in the mirror before heading to her favorite DogSpot!”

Where is your dog’s happiest place (other than DogSpot)? Send your dog’s name, photo and happy spot to info@dogspot.biz.
